1	I have not been receiving communication of quarterly meetings even though i have signed up to the mailing list.	3/11/2019 12:03 PM
2	Workshops and awareness sessions for people who are not using the technology	2/20/2019 12:36 PM
3	How useful the information received depends on its relevance to our organisation. However, when it does happen to be relevant, it is very useful and interesting.	2/20/2019 10:57 AM
4	Am not sure whether we fit the geographical criteria as we operate in Surrey. I signed up because our charity Surrey Minority Ethnic Forum works with BAME communities so your information updates us on what is happening on health, as our issues are the same, its useful to know even though we cannot directly partake.	2/20/2019 9:54 AM

#	IF YOU CAN EXPLAIN WHY YOU THINK THE BME HEALTH FORUM PROJECTS ARE OR ARE NOT SUCCESSFUL THAT WOULD BE VERY USEFUL. ALSO IF YOU HAVE ANY SUGGESTIONS FOR FUTURE PROJECTS PLEASE PLEASE ADD THEM HERE:	DATE
1	It needs better promotion.	2/25/2019 4:40 PM
2	BME HF projects is the starting point, but the whole system transformation is needed in order to reduce health inequalities	2/25/2019 12:22 PM
3	The emotional wellbeing project has been a great success for our Champions and a really great opportunity for them. Nafsika has been very flexible and generous with her time and the Champions are able to work with people from their community who otherwise would have struggled to engage with wellbeing services.	2/21/2019 4:26 PM

4	Community wellbeing and emotional wellbeing are very effective to support the BME, I would add empowering project, BME members need to be empowered and educated about their right and how to access the NHS services	2/20/2019 12:36 PM
5	We have not had any direct experience of these projects.	2/20/2019 10:57 AM
