

BMA Foundation Grants available in 2025

Online applications will open 1 February 2025 and close on 16 March 2025.

Dawkins and Strutt – £65,000

To assist research into gender and race bias in clinical decision making in healthcare. Projects must be based in the UK.

Doris Hillier – £65,000

To assist research into rheumatism and arthritis.

H C Roscoe – £65,000

To promote research into the elimination of the common cold and/or other viral diseases of the human respiratory system.

Helen H Lawson – £65,000

To promote research into women's health and wellbeing.

J Moulton (cardiovascular disease) – £65,000

To accelerate diagnosis and treatment of cardiovascular disease using AI techniques. Projects must be based in the UK.

J Moulton (kidney disease) – £65,000

To assist research into the management of chronic kidney disease. Projects must be based in the UK.

J Moulton (ophthalmology) – £65,000

To advance diagnostic and screening tools in ophthalmology. Projects must be based in the UK.

Josephine Lansdell – £65,000

To assist research in the field of heart disease.

The James Trust – £65,000

To assist research into asthma.

Kathleen Harper – £65,000

To assist research into the treatment and management of incontinence.

Margaret Temple – £65,000

To assist research into schizophrenia. Projects must relate to the UK only.

Philip Baker – £65,000

To assist research into Ménière's disease. Projects must relate to the UK only.

T P Gunton – £65,000

To assist research into public health relating to cancer.

The Sherman Fund – £50,000

To assist research into mental health in Wales. Projects must be based in Wales.

Vera Down – £65,000

To assist research into neurological disorders.

If you would like to receive alerts about the BMA Foundation grants or find out more information about the 2025 grants available, please email researchgrants@bma.org.uk

BMA Foundation

www.bmafoundationmr.org.uk

 @BMAFoundationMR